FAQS

Do I have to order online?

Online ordering is easier and quicker for our clients and ensures we get the correct details, but you can also email us at catering@precinctfood.nz or call us on 03 479 0930 if you have questions or would like us to tailor a menu for you.

What is the minimum order size and value?

Monday – Saturday there is no minimum order spend. For breakfasts we require a minimum of 8 people. For morning tea, afternoon tea and lunch orders there is a minimum of 5 people. Canape and Buffet orders have a minimum of 30 people.

Sunday orders have a minimum order spend of $600 exclusive GST.

How much notice do you need?

We recommend placing your order with us as soon as you know you require catering so we can hold the date for you. If you don't have final details confirmed (i.e., numbers and dietary needs) – submit your order with your best estimation of requirements and we are happy to amend details once this information is known.

For orders to be delivered on Mon-Fri between 8am-5pm we require at least 24 hours' notice and must be received by us no later than midday on the day prior to delivery. This will allow us time to confirm and schedule your catering. At times our days (or particular delivery times) become fully booked and so we would strongly recommend placing your order as soon as you know you require it to avoid missing out.

For orders prior to 8am or after 5pm Mon-Fri and weekend orders, we require your order no later than the Thursday the week prior so we can arrange the correct staffing to produce and deliver your order correctly. If orders come in after this time, and staff rosters need to be changed, a 20% surcharge will be added.

Monday orders must be received by us no later than midday on the preceding Friday as our office may be unattended over the weekend.

If you want to place an order after our cut off time, call us on 03 479 0930 to discuss your order requirements as we may still be able to accommodate your order.
